

On the Green

VOL. IV, NO. 11
November 20, 1974

"The policy of Gallaudet College is to provide equal opportunity in employment for all persons in its work force or being recruited for its work force, and to prohibit discrimination in employment based on race, color, creed, national origin, sex, age or religion."

If you have any questions or recommendations regarding the College's equal employment opportunity policy and its affirmative action program, do not hesitate to contact Ethel Bothuel, aide to the president for equal employment opportunity. Ethel can be reached through the President's Office.

BE SURE NOT TO MISS...

..The Gallaudet College Theatre's production of "The Lion In Winter" this Friday and Saturday evening at 8 p.m., in the Auditorium. Tickets are $3 for general admission and $2 for students.

..a collection of Washburn etchings on display this week in the Edward Miner Gallaudet Home. These prints are being sold through the Gallaudet College Alumni Association.

..an Oyster and Beef Supper on November 23, from 7-10 p.m., at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Forest Glen Road and Rosensteel Avenue, Silver Spring. Proceeds from the dinner, which is being sponsored by the Wheaton-Kensington Chapter of Rotary International, will be given to the College.

..an opportunity to learn about employment and volunteer positions serving the deaf in other nations in a program, The Deaf Reach Across the Seas, to be presented on Monday, November 26, at 8 p.m., in the Auditorium. Tickets are $2 for general admission and $1.25 for students. All proceeds from ticket sales will be donated to a new school for the deaf now under construction in the Philippines.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Electronic Technician: Educational Technology
GROUNDSKEEPER: Physical Plant
CLERK-TYPIST: Alumni and Public Relations

CUSTODIANS: Physical Plant
COACHES: Physical Education
SECURITY OFFICER: Safety and Security
COMMUNITY UNIT ADVISOR: MSSD
CCTV ENGINEER/ELECTRONIC TECHNICIAN:
MSSD
SCHOOL COUNSELOR (Faculty): MSSD

AMONG OURSELVES

--Phil Kerstetter recently presented a paper, "Low-Cost Programming -- Its Planning and Execution," at the Region IV College Union Conference held at Frostburg State College.

--Don Pettingill will be speaking to the Hartwood District Lions Club on November 19, at Fredericksburg, Maryland.

--The Baltimore Chapter of COSD invited Rod Ferrell to be guest speaker at its meeting last week. Rod talked about the history and future of Gallaudet College.

HITTING THE AIR WAVES

The Rene Chaney Show, which is broadcast over WGMS-Radio, will feature Joe Sgro from Gallaudet's Development Office and Henry Tate, chairman of Rotary International's Scholarship Program for the Deaf.

They will present information about the College, our students, their scholarship and fellowship needs and Rotary's involvement with Gallaudet.

The program will be aired next Wednesday, November 27, at 4:30 p.m.

TRAINING PROGRAM REACCREDITED

The Department of Education has received official notification that Gallaudet's teacher preparation program in education of the hearing impaired has been reaccredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

The reaccreditation, which is effective through 1984, followed submission of a comprehensive report, a three-day site visit by a NCATE team and appearances before a NCATE Board of Examiners.

DRAMA WORKSHOP GIVEN AT PRINCETON

Gil Eastman presented a workshop this past weekend demonstrating gesture language as a means of communication with children.

Held at Princeton University, the workshop was part of a program, "Creative Arts: A New Approach to Special Education," which was sponsored by the Creative Theatre Unlimited, the New Jersey State Department of Education and the New Jersey Consortium on Drama and Education. Jo Tracy interpreted for the workshop.

RESOURCES COUNCIL CHAIRMEN NAMED

The three committees comprising the College's Resources Council have selected chairmen for the present academic year. Thomas Scoggins and John Spellman have been reappointed to chair the Special Gifts and Alumni Committees, respectively.

Robert Woodward took over the chairmanship of the Parents Committee at its annual meeting which was held on campus last week. The three day meeting focused on the College's Student Affairs programs.

ON THE GREEN is published for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations. Next publication date: December 4.

Judy Bortner, editor

Judy
Happy Chanksgiving